

Dear Parents

What a wonderful Carnival! The weather played along perfectly on Sunday and, by all accounts, everyone had a fantastic day. Judging from the number of boarders who collapsed before lights out, it would appear that all and sundry had a very full and enjoyable time.

I am indeed very grateful for the excellent support that we received from our parent body and the staff. Everyone pitched in to ensure that things went very smoothly and efficiently. My thanks to you all for ensuring a very memorable day. In particular to our games convenor, Mrs Karen Hobson, to the cook, Mrs Ana Zacharellis, to the Maintenance and Domestic Staff and of course, our Director of Operations, Mrs Cindy Renard, as well as all who helped in ways too many to mention here, my sincere thanks.

We are still tying up expenses, but it would appear that we have made a very tidy profit. These monies have been earmarked for the 'ditch' area below the Clubhouse and we hope to commence phase 1 shortly.

Senior 8

The 'Senior 8' is a long standing tradition at Prep. In announcing these boys, we acknowledge their positive contribution to Prep and we appreciate the good example that they have set. A careful selection procedure which includes input from all Senior Prep boys and staff is followed.

It gives me great pleasure to announce the Senior '8' boys for 2009:

Hugo de la Fargue	Headboy
Matthew-Adam Bloem	Deputy Headboy
Matthew Kroon	Deputy Headboy
Bradley Jackson
Nani Matomane
Jeremy Richardson
Keiran Witthuhn
Fin Worrall

This week sees formal assessments taking place in Grade 6 & 7, as well as the Trinity Music Exams. Please note that our Headboy, Hugo de la Fargue, will be laying a wreath at the Cathedral this Sunday at 11h00 as part of the Remembrance Day Parade.

Junior Prep News

LOST PROPERTY – please would all parents check items of school clothing at home. If they do not belong to your child, return them to school. Also, there are a lot of unclaimed bits in the Lost Property basket in the foyer. It is very NB that all your child's clothing is clearly marked for school!

The grade 3 groups spent two days at Beyond Adventure last week. This was a time when team-work, physical endurance and character were put to test. Some Preppies thrived in this environment and others found it rather taxing. Thanks to Gill and Heidi for taking them on this wonderful experience.

NB events to diarize:

- Friday 6 November – The Grahamstown Flower Show for children.
- Saturday 28 November – Southwell Junior Tennis Tournament – for interested pupils who can serve and hit over the net. Parents must please make the necessary arrangements to enter your child. Flyers to be sent home soon.

Pre-Primary News

A HUGE thank you to all the moms and dads who worked shifts at Carnival on Sunday, and for the delicious eats you brought to the Tea Garden! From all the "news" on Monday it was clear that a great time was had by all!

Only a few more weeks left this term....
Please diarise our Nativity Play on Friday 27 November at 18h00.

St Andrew's Prep Carnival!

A big thank you to all who made Carnival
the success it was.

Little Adam Snyman isn't too sure if he wants to take 'The leap of faith' zip-line at the St Andrew's Prep carnival but he was all smiles once he got going.
